OVERVIEW, GOAL:

Christ Freedom Home is a personalized transition program. Expected duration is 6 months up to two years. Our goal is to see you experience real life change while you work towards full sobriety and recovery, maintaining employment, becoming financially independent, with the ultimate goal of spiritual maturity and fruit bearing.

DISCIPLESHIP:

1. Five church related functions each week including services, studies and recovery meeting. CFH favors attending Faith Baptist Church and Freedom That Lasts recovery meeting as a group. Other options are possible.
2. Daily personal devotions are expected.
3. CFH conducts five in-house Bible studies each week. Attendance is required.
4. Residents are required to have at least one in-person mentor contact each week and ideally several phone interactions.
5. An accountability form must be submitted to leadership each week. It is collected by a staff member during the mentor time or on Friday at FTL.

GOAL: immersion in the Word with increasing depth, growing intimacy with the Lord, strong group dynamic (iron sharpening iron), godly habits, obedience, eventual church membership and active ministry.

EMPLOYMENT: Full time employment developing skills, experience, strong work ethics and financial independence. Good pay and advancement opportunities based on performance.

HOUSING, TRANSPORTATION: Private and shared bedrooms/bathrooms, nice accommodations, transportation provided as needed.

COST: $550/month program fee deducted from payroll. Individual expenses are supplies and groceries.

HOUSEKEEPING: cleaning and cooking, developing strong house disciplines

VEHICLES, PHONES: determined on a case-by-case basis

FREEDOM: residents will always have an accountability partner and are never alone in public without leadership approval. GOAL: separation from bad influences and opportunities for the flesh.

OPPOSITE SEX RELATIONSHIPS: no new relationships for six months and only with leadership approval.
